

Mandi Dersch: always take everything in stride. Calm and collective even when times are tough.

Mandi Dersch: she has common-sense approach to problems; doesn't get excited and figures out how to get things done!

Mandi Dersch: dedicated employee. Always a pleasure to talk to her.

Judi Taylor: She always considers her patient welfare first and foremost; and she works with fellow employees for continuity of care.

Judi Taylor: very compassionate and caring.

Judi Taylor: never shows when she is frustrated.

Judi Taylor: paperwork is neat and turned in timely. Always has a smile on her face and she cares for her patients.

Judi Taylor: she's always in a good mood.

Linda Fisher: hard working and caring.

Cheryl Holland: she seems to manage her position well and with ease.

Lee Grimes: knowledgeable and good with Hospice.

Pam Hobson: she is always friendly, competent and welcoming to staff and clients.

Debbie Guthrie: exhibits outstanding patient care and remains positive even when we are short staffed and census is high.

Martina Wilcoxon: raising grandkids and lost a daughter – she still goes on with working hard for grandkids.

Karen Cooper: she is an excellent aide and is always very kind.