ESSENTIAL JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

Insure a safe and healthy learning environment

- Provide children with a learning environment and the varied experiences, which will help them develop socially, intellectually, physically and emotionally.
- Make regular checks of the safety and cleanliness of indoor and outdoor play areas, giving themselves time to address any problems they identify.
- Develop and follow written schedules for play area supervision to ensure appropriate child: staff ratios are maintained at all times.
- Build a healthy environment where children and adults can interact freely and constructively in a group setting.
- Integrate the educational aspects of the various Head Start components in the daily program of activities.
- Follow Head Start and state guidelines on classroom setup and supplies.
- Follow the chosen curriculum with fidelity.

Advance physical and intellectual competence

- Conduct a developmental screening on each child enrolled in the Head Start classroom within 45 days of enrollment.
- Accept each child at his/her own developmental level and individualize a plan to help each child grow to the maximum of his/her ability.

- Encourage children to practice physical and cognitive school readiness skills by solving problems, initiating activities, exploring, experimenting and questioning by engaging in intentionally planned learning activities.
- Provide a portion of the program day where children are free to choose what they play with and use questioning, predicting, and analyzing questions as appropriate to help the children problem solve. Have materials available and accessible to the children.

Support social and emotional development and provide guidance

- Provide children with an environment of acceptance that will help each child build ethnic pride, develop a positive self-concept, enhance his/her individual strengths, and develop positive social relationships to support school readiness.
- Use Minds in Motion maze, Conscious Discipline, and the challenging behavior policy.
- Supervise or arrange for proper supervision of children while in the classroom and while on the playground.
- Participate in all indoor and outdoor physical activities with the children.
- Utilize playground time as a learning experience and as a continuation of the classroom theme.
- Help each child find acceptable social behavior for out-of-control emotions and moods by using Conscious Discipline consistently.

Establish positive and productive relationships with children and families

- Help each child's parent(s) or guardian(s) realize that their child is unique and special with their own strengths and weaknesses.
- Model positive self-esteem building behaviors when working with children.
- Adhere to the guidelines outlined in the Classroom Assessment Scoring System (CLASS) to insure high quality teacher-child interactions.
- Establish a good rapport with families by making home visits, having parent/teacher conferences, and by helping parents interpret their child's developmental screenings.
- Encourage parent engagement in program activities, planning, classroom volunteering, assisting on field trips, in-home activities, parent meetings, trainings, workshops, and parent and child together time.
- Model manners, health, hygiene, speech, and safety.
- Conduct orientation of volunteers in the classroom / education procedures. Assist in the volunteer evaluation.
- Encourage parents and families to develop warm relationships that nurture their child's learning and development.
- Encourage parents and families to become lifelong educators by observing, guiding, promoting, and participating in the everyday learning of their children at home, school and in their communities.
- Encourage parents and families to support and advocate for their child's learning and development as they transition to new learning environments, including EHS to HS, EHS/HS to other early learning environments, and HS to kindergarten through elementary school.

Insure a well-run, purposeful program responsive to the participants needs

- Provide a balanced program of staff-directed and child-directed activities.
- Maintain screening, anecdotal notes, and assessments in organized files on each child.
- Take part in family case conferences and challenging behavior conferences.

- Report all suspected cases of child abuse or neglect, as required by law, in accordance with agency policies and procedures. Submit documentation to the early education supervisor.
- Participate in staff meetings, family meetings, training, and any other assigned meetings.
- Maintain daily attendance records and documentation of excused absences.
- Contribute to the agency's full compliance with the Head Start Performance Standards. Help implement all objectives and policies.
- Maintain daily health, safety, and playground checklists. Submit documentation to the early education supervisor.
- Assist with the recruitment of eligible children for the Head Start and Early Head Start programs.
- Assist with gathering and accurately documenting in-kind.
- Perform additional duties as deemed necessary by the Director of Children's Services or designee.

Maintain a commitment to professionalism

- Maintain confidentiality at all times.
- Participate in pre-service and in-service trainings, workshops, seminars, and conferences to increase professional growth and development.
- Attend CLASS overview training conducted annually by the early education supervisor as required.
- Meet monthly with the early education supervisor to share information, problems and concerns as well as discussing professional development opportunities and implementation.
- Participate in reflective self-evaluation each month.
- Create and adhere to career and position goals
