- Fielding all tenant complaints in an appropriate, sympathetic, and confidential manor; keeping in mind to avoid “he said, she said” arguments. If there isn’t an impartial witness then both parties are written up or no one is written up without discussing the situation with housing director.

- We should try to help people when possible without being taken advantage of. Enforcement of property rules and pet policies is essential to the safety and welfare of all tenants. You have the option to verbally warn someone but if you want to act on it then it should be put in writing.
- Policy guidelines are:
 - Give 3 written warnings before an eviction. Except in the situation of non-payment of rent.
 - Allow at least 7 days to fix the situation, (Sometimes it may warrant a longer time). It is at the manager's discretion.
- For rent situations:
 - As soon as someone doesn't pay rent, they should be offered three monthly payments to catch up.
 - If they don't keep the agreement along with paying their regular rent on time, then the eviction process should begin.
- Everyone at every complex should be treated the same; follow the same rules and have the same options to rectify the situation.
- Practice Fair Housing ALWAYS.

Other responsibilities as assigned by Housing Director.
